

Membership Terms and Conditions

- Membership cards must only be used by the named child/childminder. Allowing others to use your card will result in the termination of your membership.
- Identify will be verified on our computer system on each visit
- Membership is valid for 12 months
- Membership cards must be shown on each visit to qualify for discounted admission and 'members only' special offers
- The Play Centre will not tolerate any bullying or intimidation towards other children using the centre. Parents/Guardians or Childminders are responsible for the behaviour of the child in their care at all times. Continuous anti-social behaviour will result in the termination of the membership and you will be asked to leave the centre with no refund offered
- The Play Centre will not tolerate any bullying or intimidation towards members of staff. Persons who behave in this manner will be asked to leave the centre and memberships will be terminated with no refund offered
- All information given will be kept strictly confidential and will not be passed to any third party